ORDINANCE OF THE TOWNSHIP OF SHREWSBURY CREATING RENT CONTROL, PROTECTIVE TENANCY AND A RENT LEVELING BOARD

WHEREAS, a large portion of residents of the Township of Shrewsbury live in an apartment complex, and are in dire need of protection as tenants, especially in the area of rent increases and affordable, available housing.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED and ENACTED by the Mayor and Township Committee of the Township of Shrewsbury, County of Monmouth and the State of New Jersey as follows:

RENT CONTROL.

§1 Definitions. As used in this Ordinance:

Date that the lease is entered into in the case of the renewal of leases shall mean the starting date of the last renewal term. Anniversary date shall mean the date that the lease is entered into or periodic tenancy commenced (oral lease) and each yearly renewal date thereafter.

Existing legal rent shall mean the actual legal monthly rental a tenant is paying for his apartment or unit or space. At the time of this Ordinance if the present monthly rent being paid by a tenant is five hundred and eighty dollars ($580.00) and the tenant is also paying a twenty ($20.00) dollar a month hardship surcharge, the existing legal rent for the next permissible increase will be six hundred ($600.00) dollars and the next permissible increase will be the increased percentage in CPI as set forth in Subsection 4-30.2b x $600.00. Thereafter, the "existing rent" will be this six hundred dollars ($600.00) plus any CPI increases. Any capital improvement surcharge shall be separate from the rent and not be included in the base rent.

Legal rent shall mean any consideration paid by tenant for the use and occupancy of the rental property. All charges that are considered mandatory for all tenants, including but not limited to refurbishment fees and administrative fees, shall be considered "rent" and shall be illegal unless inclusive of all rents and meeting the ceiling limitations of this Ordinance. Optional charges, which are chosen by tenants such as pet fees, pool fees, recreation fees, and the like, shall not be inclusive of the definition of "rent" as viewed by this Ordinance.

Enforcement fees or security fees such as late fees, bounced check fees, legal fees and costs of court for enforcement of a breach of lease agreement and increases in security deposit are also not considered "rent" for purposes of this Ordinance.

Housing space, dwelling or apartment shall mean and include the portion of a structure rented or offered for rent for living and dwelling purposes to one individual or family unit together with all privileges, services furnishings, furniture, equipment, facilities, parking and garage facilities (whether optional or mandatory), and improvements connected with the use or occupancy of such portion of the property. Included are any building or structure, rented or offered for rent to one or more tenant or family units. Exempt from this Ordinance are: motels, hotels and similar type buildings; commercial buildings with regards to commercial rentals; and housing structures owner occupied with two (2) units or less rental units. Housing units newly constructed and rented for the first time are exempted, with regards to tenant's first year rental. That is the initial rent may be determined by the landlord but all subsequent rents will be subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, subject further to any State Statute such as N.J.S.A. 2A:42-84.2, which may provide a temporary exemption for newly constructed multiple dwellings. Further exemption may exist by the preemption by Federal and State Statutes regulating residential rents such as, but not limited to, dwellings owned by HUD, financed under federal programs and subject to regulations promulgated by the Department of Housing and Urban Development, and housing regulated and provided under the New Jersey Housing Finance Agency Law of 1967. (N.J.S.A. 55:14J)

Notify or notification shall mean either certified mail, or regular mail or hand delivery acknowledged by written receipt; or if the party refuses to claim or acknowledge delivery, by regular mail.

Price Index shall mean the "Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers" for the region of the United States, of which Shrewsbury Township, New Jersey, is a part (i.e. the New York-East-New Jersey region) published periodically by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor.

Substantial compliance shall mean that the housing space and dwelling are free from all heat, hot water, elevator and all health, safety and fire violations as well as ninety (90%) percent qualitatively free of all other violations of the Shrewsbury Township Property Maintenance Ordinances, Uniform Construction Code, Hotel and Multiple Dwelling Law and relevant Statutes.

§2 Establishment of Rent; Increase.

- a. Establishment of rents between a landlord and a tenant in any dwelling shall hereafter be determined by the provisions of this Ordinance. Any rental increase in excess of that authorized by the provisions of this Ordinance shall be void.
- b. Upon proper notice at the expiration of a lease or periodic tenancy, no landlord may request or receive an increase greater than the percentage increase, if any, in the Price Index published in the fourth month prior to the month in which the lease or periodic tenancy terminates over the Price Index published in the sixteenth month prior to the month of termination. The rent resulting from the imposition of any increase provided hereunder may be rounded to the nearest dollar with regard to the final step of calculation only. Calculation of the CPI published shall be in the month it is published not the month of designation, i.e., November CPI published in December is December's CPI. Calculation of percentages shall be calculated out two decimal points only and then dropped not rounded. No landlord shall request or receive more than one rental increase per year per housing space unless said housing space is decontrolled by a vacancy. By way of example, a rent increase computed in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be computed as follows:

EXAMPLE

Assuming a lease or periodic tenancy expires in April of 2005, use the CPI published in the fourth preceding month, or December of 2004 (a. below). Take the CPI published in the sixteenth month preceding the month of termination, or December of 2003 (b. below) and subtract b. from a. To calculate the percentage change in the CPI, take c. and divide it by b. (d. below).

Next, multiply the current rent by the percentage change in the CPI (e. below) and add to the current rent to arrive at the new rent.

a. CPI published in December 2004	293.9
b. CPI published in December 2003	-283.6
c. Difference in CPI	10.3
d. Percentage change in CPI 10.3 divide by 283.6 =	.03
e. Permissible increase is $400 (current rent) multiplied by .03 =	12.00
f. New rent is (rounded to nearest dollar)	$412.00

§3 Rent Increase; Notice Required.

- a. Any landlord seeking an increase in rent shall, at least sixty (60) days prior to the effective date of the increase, notify the tenant of the calculations involved in computing the increase, including the Price Index at the respective dates as required in §2 the allowable percentage increase, the allowable rental increase, the previous year's base rent, and a certification by the landlord that the dwelling is in substantial compliance with all Municipal Property Maintenance Ordinances, Uniform Construction Code, Hotel and Multiple Dwelling law and all relevant housing Statutes. Failure to comply with this provision shall result in the rental continuing at old rent until proper notice is given.
- b. Any landlord seeking a rent increase, a lease renewal or an agreement to extend or renew leases shall provide notice of said action in writing and in duplicate to the tenant at least sixty (60) days prior to the effective date of increase renewal, extension or other action and further that no tenant shall be required to sign any such rent increase notice, renewal or agreement to extend or renew lease until such tenant has had the opportunity to review the documents for a period of five (5) business days.

§4 Appeal by Landlord.

- a. In the event that a landlord cannot receive a fair return after having received the increase provided in §2, he may appeal to the Rent Leveling Board for increased rental. The Board may grant a hardship rent increase to meet this requirement. The landlord must provide evidence according to the standards recognized at law for determining fair return. The Board will rely upon the recognized standard that a landlord should receive a net operating income of at least forty (40%) percent of the gross annual income after deducting reasonable and necessary operating expenses, in the absence of an adequate showing that utilization of this standard will result in an unfair return to the landlord. Operating expenses shall not include mortgage principal or interest payments, depreciation or amortization. Any hardship increase granted by the Board will take the place of the annual CPI increase and shall be equally prorated to all units within the structure thirty (30) days after the decision of the Rent Leveling Board, provide that no increase shall take effect with regard to any tenant who has a written lease until the expiration of the lease unless the lease provides otherwise.
- b. Landlord may seek addition surcharges for major capital improvements or services. To qualify for a major improvement surcharge, claimant must show a benefit to the tenant, in the form of improved lifestyle, convenience, ease and/or security. The landlord must notify each tenant of the total cost of the completed capital improvement or service, the number of years of useful life of the improvement as claimed by the landlord for purposes of depreciation for income tax purposes, the cost of the improvement, the total number of square feet to the dwelling or garden apartment complex, the total square feet occupied by the tenant and the capital improvement surcharge he is seeking from each tenant. The landlord seeking a capital improvement or service surcharge shall appeal for the surcharge to the Rent Leveling Board who shall determine if the improvement is a major improvement and if so, may permit such increase to take place and may direct that the increase shall be collected in equal monthly payments spread over the useful life of the capital improvement. If the increase is granted it shall not be considered rental and calculated in cost of living increases. In any event, no increase authorized by this section shall exceed fifteen (15%) percent of the tenant's rent.
- c. Prior to any such appeal to the Board provided for in paragraphs a. and b. of this section, a landlord must post in the lobby of each building or if no lobby is present, in a conspicuous place in and about the premises a notice of the appeal setting forth the basis for the appeal. The notice must be posted for a least fifteen (15) days prior to the proposed date of appeal. He shall also send a separate notice by regular and certified mail return receipt requested to each tenant at least fifteen (15) days prior to the proposed date of the appeal. Landlord must also submit to the Board a certification from the Code Enforcement Officer of Shrewsbury Township that the building and grounds are in substantial compliance with the Municipal Property Maintenance Ordinances, Uniform Construction Code, Hotel and Multiple Dwelling Law and with regard to any applicable statutes.

A tenant who has resided in housing space for less than the entire tax year to which a reduction pertains (hereinafter "tax year") shall be entitled to receive a percentage of the tax refund pertaining to his housing space which percentage shall be equal to the percentage of the tax year the tenant resided in the housing space.

With respect to any tenant who is entitled to a tax refund but whose whereabouts are unknown, the landlord shall, within forty-five (45) days after receipt by him of his tax refund or the crediting of such refund against outstanding taxes, deposit the tenant's portion in a bank account maintained by the landlord.

With respect to a tenant whose whereabouts are unknown, the landlord shall make a reasonable effort to ascertain such tenant's whereabouts, and refund to him any amounts to which he is entitled. If, after two (2) months from the date of the landlord's receipt of his tax refund or the crediting of such refund against outstanding taxes, he has been unable to ascertain the whereabouts of any tenant entitled to a refund, the landlord shall apply such tenant's portion of the tax refund for general maintenance purposes and/or making improvements to the common elements of the dwelling.

provide details to the Board pertaining to the expenditure of, funds for general maintenance purposes and/or for making improvements to the common elements.

§9 Standards of Service.

In the event the landlord fails to provide such services, tenants may petition the Board for a rent reduction.

§10 First Time Rental (Vacancy Decontrol).

The owner of housing space or dwelling being rented for the first time shall not be restricted in the initial rent he charges. Any subsequent rental increases, however, shall be subject to the provisions of this Ordinance.

§12 Vacant Housing Decontrolled, Recontrolled.

Any housing space which is presently vacant or which will become vacant during or at the end of any lease term shall be decontrolled and the rent may be raised by the landlord. The rent to be charged to a new tenant as well as the rent previously charged for the same space shall be reported to the Rent Leveling Board within fifteen (15) days of renting the space. Upon being re-rented, the rental space shall be considered recontrolled to the same extent and under the same conditions as any space originally controlled.

Failure to report the information required within the fifteen (15) days specified shall result in the rental space remaining controlled to the same extent and under the same conditions as if it had not been vacant and any rental charged the new tenant in excess of that controlled rate shall be void.

§13 Complaint Against Landlord.

Any tenant filing a complaint with the Rent Leveling Board against the landlord shall be required to sign a complaint and appear before the Board to give testimony as requested by the Board. The landlord and/or his representative upon due notice shall be required to appear and give testimony. §15 Posting Required.
